Despite getting outraised nearly 2:1, Martha McSally calls her fundraising "impressive". This inability to face reality is why she lost last time. We need to keep this seat Republican; we can't afford a candidate that doesn't even understand how badly she's getting beaten.

There are many political ends on which trad conservatives and many on the esp old Left will agree: decent wages for workers, basic familial health care, schools that educate children with varying needs. We can argue about delivery but the 'protective' ends we actually agree on.

I see far more progressive credo signs ("In this house we believe: ") going up in Tucson than Biden signs. The most ardent Dem voters just do not love their candidate.

Trump voters do, but Trump signs are rarer, since no one wants their house egged. Right now I'd say he wins AZ.

With lightning speed, the Associated Press adopts Democrats' language on SCOTUS: adding members is now "depoliticizing" the court, only "critics" refer to it as "packing."

> Bullock said that if Coney Barrett was confirmed, he would be open to measures to depoliticize the court, including adding judges to the bench, a practice critics have dubbed packing the courts.

7 Compare that med a outrage to the quiet and forgetfulness that quickly buried the WaPo's Dec 2019 bombshell release of literally decades of secret memos about the failed war in Afghanistan. One day news story. Do you remember it?

Since @FoxNews made their very premature call giving AZ to Biden, the actual votes - yeah we still count them - have narrowed the gap by ~50,000 and there are still around 800,000 left to count. Arizona is not over yet.

AZ early am update. Maricopa County overnight was a pickup of ~50,000 votes for Trump. Biden lead is now ~90k with ~520k ballots out there. A 60-40 Trump split of those ballots would put Trump ahead by ~10k. Trump has been winning the count 60-40 or better since late last night.

Arizona Update

Trump closing the gap as more ballots are counted.

~75k counted in Maricopa County. Trump won ~59% & reduced Biden lead by ~13k.

Trump needed to win 57% or more so he outperformed. If he keeps on that track he'll win.

Arizona is not yet decided. Stay tuned.

Reports of dead people voting in Milwaukee and Detroit, should they be investigated? No, the media just reports about Qanon.

Meanwhile any discussion of voter fraud is censored, disproven-in-advance by 'experts' and 'science'

Vote integrity must be defended and transparent.

worth mentioning they have called for counting all ballots received on or before election day and not to count those received after the calls to stop the count mean stop counting until republican poll watchers are allowed

Worth mentioning that if you stopped counting ballots right now, Biden would win with this map. So Trump is reliant on ballots counted after Election Day for h s comeback chances.

Like, Chris Hayes doesn't really feel guilty, he feels proud to be better than other whites. He never did think that black people are superior; he thought that he himself was superior for being able to worship the correct idol. Narcissism, as you also point out.

I think in practice it's less often "guilt" and more often pride in being the right kind of white person, i.e. the kind who deplores his ancestors.

AZ isn't Philly, but we do use Dominion voting machines, the Sec of State has the BLM hashtag in her bio, & she calls Trump supporters neo-nazis. Seems bad!

It's good to be skeptical ("scientific"!) about our procedures, especially if your instinct is to say they are perfect.

there really is a Simpsons ep for everything

Homer to the Max

"Homer to the Max" is the thirteenth episode of The Simpsons' tenth season. It originally aired on the Fox network in the United States on February 7, 1999.[1] In the episode, Homer discovers that a new television show, Police Cops, has a hero also named Homer Simpson. He is delighted with the positive attention he receives because of his name, but when the television character is rewritten from a hero to a bumbling idiot, he is mocked and taunted, so he changes his name to "Max Power" to rid himself of the negative attention. Max gains new friends, and is forced into a protest to prevent a forest from being knocked down. In the end, he changes his name

In discussing the effects of Covid, we should distinguish between those caused by the virus and those caused by humans. Protracted lockdowns and school closures are human policy choices. The data showed they weren't necessary a long time ago. This is human folly.

In Arizona, teachers have been prioritized for the vaccine, and many school districts are reporting that nearly all of their educators have received both doses. 4/

@dougducey

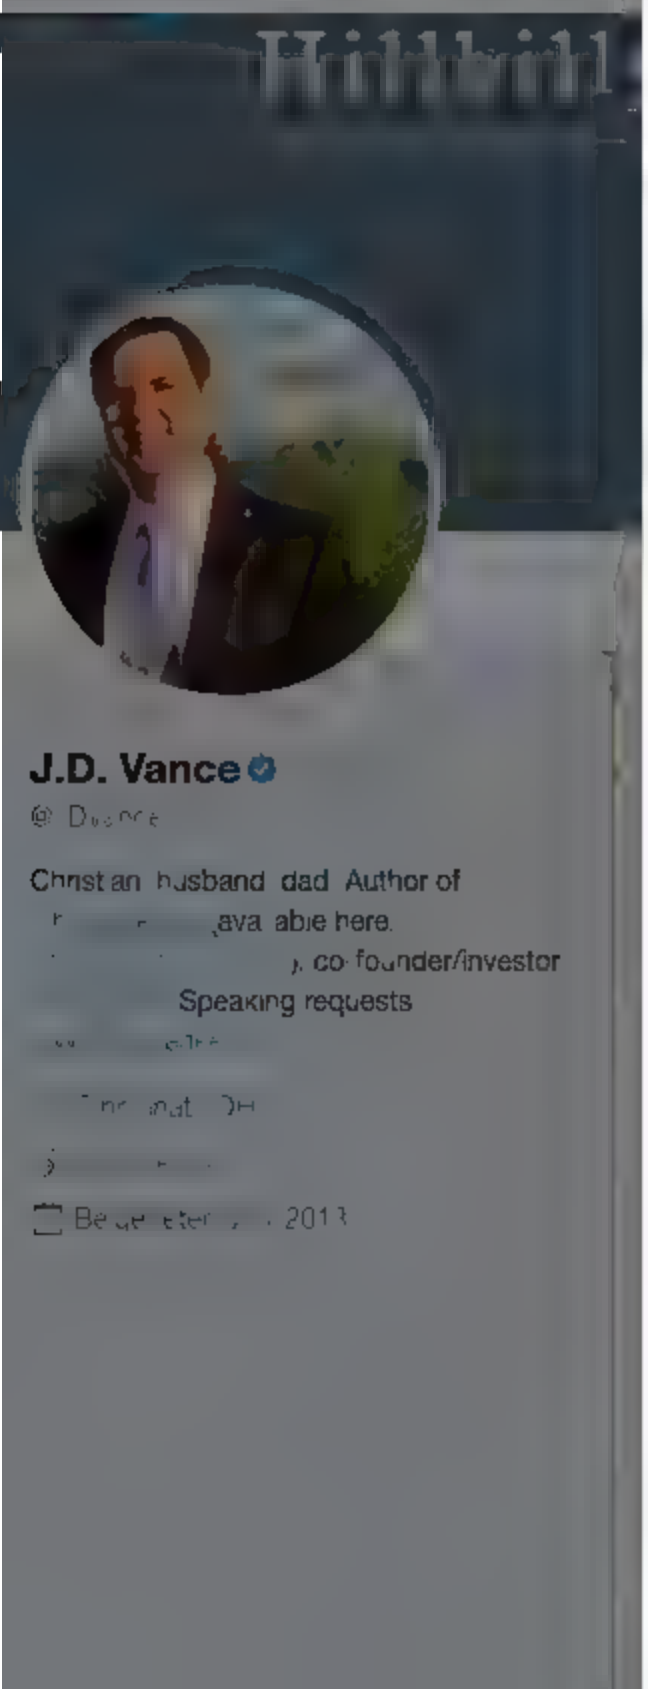
Today, I'm issuing a new Executive Order. It requires public schools to get back to teacher-led, in-person instruction by March 15, or after Spring Break. 5/

Doug Ducey @dougducey

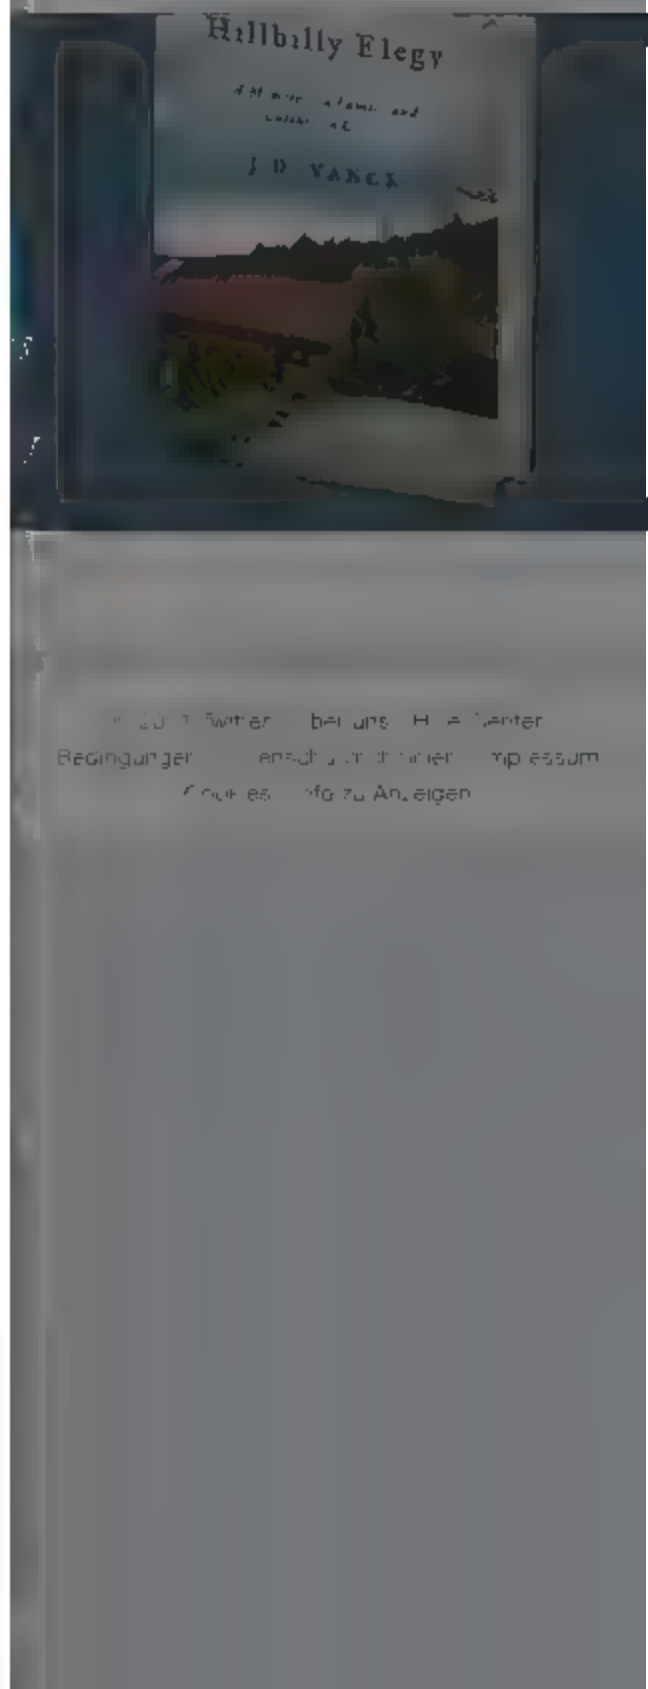
I know not every parent feels comfortable sending their kids back to school. So virtual learning will continue to be an option for those families. But many do want to go back, and this will require schools to provide that opportunity. 6/

Doug Ducey @dougducey

The science is clear, and so are the social and behavioral impacts. It's time to get kids back in the classroom. 7/



Doug Ducey @dougducey



I'm confident that Arizona has made better progress on this to date than many other states, and today's action will speed up the process even more. 8/8

What's ironic is that these hall-monitor snitches enforcing the current orthodoxy of anti-fascism or whatever, would all have been ardent Nazis in Germany or Communists in Cuba, ratting out their neighbors for status and perks. It's a personality type in search of a cause.

The assault on language in the name of "inclusivity" or sensitivity is really just about making language so imprecise that regular people can no longer speak truth.

Not a mistress, but a companion. Not a riot if it's a mostly peaceful protest. Not illegal, just undocumented.

Arizona House bans Critical Race Theory! Now headed to the State Senate!

1700 West Washington • Phoenix, Arizona • 85007

Wednesday, May 5, 2021
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

House Passes the "Unbiased Teaching Act," Barring Racist, Sexist & Politicized Instruction in Arizona Schools

STATE CAPITOL, PHOENIX – The Arizona House of Representatives today passed important legislation that bars racist, sexist and politicized instruction in Arizona schools. The "Unbiased Teaching Act," a floor amendment proposed by State Representative Michelle Udall (R-25) chair of the House Education Committee, was adopted onto SB 1532, which was passed by the House with the support of all 31 House Republicans.

"Racism cannot be combated by teaching children to be racist," said Representative Udall. "Our country has not always lived up to the concept that 'all men are created equal,' still, it is a fundamental ideal that should be upheld by our schools, government institutions, and society. Judging individuals by the color of their skin, ethnic heritage, or sex is deeply wrong. To teach our children otherwise is immoral and fuels corrosive societal tensions within our state and nation."

Under the Act, a school district, charter school, or state agency is prohibited from requiring teachers to engage students in controversial issues of public policy or social affairs that are not essential to the course learning objectives. If raised for discussion in a class, teachers would be required to present such issues from diverse and contending perspectives without giving deference to any one perspective.

"Issues related to race and sex are appropriate for discussion in an educational environment, and the Unbiased Teaching Act does nothing to prevent that," added Udall. "In fact, learning about terrible abuses that have occurred in the name of racism or sexism is important if framed in proper context, but no student should ever be taught that a person's race, ethnicity or sex determines his or her character, bias, treatment, or worth."

Other provisions prohibit any requirement, assignment of coursework or awarding of class credit

Standing with the voters and their desire for secure elections is paramount to maintaining our form of government. This bill is a modest, but critical step toward restoring confidence in our election system. A heartfelt thank you again to @dougducey for signing #SB1485

Councilman DiCiccio's Statement on Disgraceful OAT Vote

"What Phoenix did today, was approve the most radical, extremist, and anti-police plan in the entire country. Today's vote was not about acting for accountability or transparency, but about handing over unlimited power to hate groups.

The defund the police movement is the real deal here in Phoenix. The vast majority of the community supports the police versus this small group of 100 people. These radical anti-police protesters will not stop until they have destroyed the foundations of law and order in our city.

I am so angry and embarrassed for our hardworking police officers, who put their lives on the line every day to protect us. Mark my words, we will lose even more officers and put citizens lives in danger."

Yes, socialism is bad. It's also not why Blackrock is buying up every house it can. Schoolchildren are being taught that America is racist, and Facebook is allowed to suppress any right of center viewpoint at will Take yesterday's SCOTUS decision upholding AZ's ban on ballot harvesting. 100% the right result. It's good the AZ law was defended.

But it's purely defensive. If we lose a few state leg seats and get a Dem governor, boom, ballot harvesting is legal again in AZ.

This happens a lot with religious liberty cases.

Take the Bladensburg cross case, in 2019. Does a 40-foot WWI memorial cross on state land violate the 1st Amendment? No. SCOTUS said, 7-2, because the cross is old and has a secular meaning. What? With victories like these.

Republicans are always celebrating small, often narrow legal wins as "MASSIVE VICTORIES."

Too much defense, not enough offense. This mentality ensures that, over time, the left wins.

Take yesterday's SCOTUS decision upholding AZ's ban on ballot harvesting. 100% the right result. It's good the AZ law was defended.

But it's purely defensive. If we lose a few state leg seats and get a Dem governor, boom: ballot harvesting is legal again in AZ.

This happens a lot with religious liberty cases.

Take the Bladensburg cross case. In 2019: Does a 40-foot WWI memorial cross on state land violate the 1st Amendment? No, SCOTUS said 7-2 because... the cross is old and has a secular meaning. What? With victories like these:

> (c) Applying these principles here, the Bladensburg Cross does not violate the Establishment Clause. The image of the simple wooden cross that originally marked the graves of American soldiers killed in World War I became a symbol of their sacrifice, and the design of the Bladensburg Cross must be understood in light of that background. That the cross originated as a Christian symbol and retains that meaning in many contexts does not change the fact that the symbol took on an added secular meaning when used in World War I memorials. The Cross has also acquired historical importance with the passage of time, reminding the townspeople of the deeds and sacrific-

Or the recent Fulton case: SCOTUS said 9-0 that Philly can't force a Catholic foster care org to place foster kids with gay couples.

Correct result, but if you win a such a case 9-0 with Sotomayor on your side, it was argued super narrowly and its precedent is near worthless.

Masterpiece Cakeshop is another one. The baker won. SCOTUS said he can't be forced to write pro-gay things on the cake he was otherwise happy to bake.

Now the baker is being sued again, for not doing a pro-trans cake. This will continue forever. The process is the punishment.

Yes, we should take every win we can get. But we need to aim higher. Ballot harvesting remains illegal in AZ - great. The law also goes basically unenforced - there is plenty more to tighten up, and voters will demand that we not rest on our laurels. Onward!

I think I've had discussions w/enough Boomer-tier Trump supporters who believe the 2020 election was fraudulent to extract a general theory about their perspective. It is also the perspective of most of the people at the Capitol on 1/6, and probably even Trump himself. 1/x

Most believe some or all of the theories involving midnight ballots, voting machines, etc, but what you find when you talk to them is that, while they'll defend those positions w/info they got from Hannity or Breitbart or whatever, they're not particularly attached to them. 2/x

Here are the facts — actual, confirmed facts — that shape their perspective: 1) The FBI/etc spied on the 2016 Trump campaign using evidence manufactured by the Clinton campaign. We now know that all involved knew it was fake from Day 1 (see: Brennan's July 2016 memo, etc). 3/x > computer chips we need to run the modern economy. So I think focusing on stopping offshore, onshoring to the extent we can, and training our people for the jobs of the 21st century. We've got to get serious about this stuff. And for the longest time, it was, 'Oh, don't worry, your manufacturing job is going away, but it's OK because you can move up the value stack as Americans. You can learn to code.' And it's like, no, actually, sorry, you can't really learn to code because we're going to import 200,000 people a year from India to take that coding job for less money.

state. He indoctrinates the pupil about what is right or wrong, not only in school but also in society at large. He stands in loco parentis for each one and thus ensures that all feel themselves children of the same state.

The teacher-as-therapist feels authorized to delve into the personal life of his pupil in order to help him grow as a person. When this function is exercised by a custodian and preacher, it usually means that he persuades the pupil to submit to a domestication of his vision of truth and his sense of what is right.

The claim that a liberal society can be founded on the modern school is paradoxical. The safeguards of individual freedom are all canceled in the dealings of a teacher with his pupil. When the schoolteacher fuses in his person the functions of judge, ideologue, and doctor, the fundamental style of society is perverted by the very process which should prepare for life. A teacher who combines these three powers contributes to the warping of the child much more than the laws which establish his legal or economic minority, or restrict his right to free assembly or abode.

About 50,000 migrants who crossed the southern border illegally have now been released in the United States without a court date.

Although they are told to report to an ICE office instead, just 13% have showed up so far, Axios has learned.

BLAKE MASTERS ON DEMOCRATS' MASS AMNESTY PLOY

TUCSON, AZ— United States Senate candidate Blake Masters released the following statement on Senate Democrats' efforts to amnesty mill ons through budget reconc liation

" llve just an hour from the Mexican border I have seen firsthand the havoc and suffering that illegal immigration wreaks in Arizona Thousands of people, including hundreds of violent crim nals, flood through the holes n our border wall every day. Once here, many of them continue to commit cr mes, and they impose huge costs on our education and welfare systems and infrastructure

"There can be no amnesty for people who break into our country. Illegal mmigration s llegal. Period. The recent surge in llega immigration is the direct result of Biden-Harris' weak policies which of course Senator Mark Kelly supports n lockstep. We deserve leaders who w l enforce the aw, not undermine it In the U S Senate, I will oppose granting U.S. citizenship to those who come to America llegally, and I will oppose every underhanded and ill-conceived mass amnesty proposa the Democrats try to sneak into unrelated Senate bills."

Dems want to "crack down" on crypto.

This is the Big Tech mentality. Big Tech is all about control, whereas crypto is about decentralization. And that's why they don't like it. (Should go without saying that her eco argument is fake.)

Bitcoin requires so much computing activity that it eats up more energy than entire countries. One of the easiest and least disruptive things we can do to fight the #ClimateCrisis is to crack down on environmentally wasteful cryptocurrencies.

Agree with this, but a real school nutrition reform effort can't be captured by the food lobbies. It's not good to load kids up on grains and starchy vegetables and nonfat chocolate milk

BLAKE MASTERS ON MARK KELLY'S VOTE AGAINST THE WALL

TUCSON, AZ— United States Senate candidate Blake Masters released the following statement:

"When it comes to defending our border, Mark Kelly is all talk and no action. It's no surprise that Kelly voted in lockstep with all the Democrats (except one) to prevent border wall construction — which has already been paid for — from being included in the infrastructure bill.

"Let's be clear: having a completed border wall is literally 'infrastructure.' Almost everything the Democrats are trying to cram into this bill is not. Amnesty is not infrastructure. 'Diversity Recruitment' initiatives are not infrastructure. 'Invasive Plant Elimination' programs that cost $250 million are not infrastructure.

"And don't think Senator Kelly is just 'confused', he sits on crucial committees that are supposed to oversee actual infrastructure. If Mark Kelly really wanted to solve the border crisis, he would have voted with Senator Joe Manchin, the only Democrat in the Senate who recognized that funding the completion of the border wall is necessary.

"More than 200,000 migrants illegally crossed our southern border last month alone. Mark Kelly's vote is a slap in the face to our law enforcement officers and our state.

With less immigration and more training and onshoring, we can raise wages for Americans. We also need to cut costs for healthcare, education, and housing, which are inflated in all sorts of nefarious ways - including massive gov't subsidies, tax exemptions, and bureaucracy.

This is lovely thought but so unrealistic and even naive.
Will he want to remake our society and our economy to make this happen ? Free money ? Subsidies? Inflationary ? Certainly not necessarily free market. This could be as progressive as socialists already in Congress

BLAKE MASTERS ON APPLE'S DYSTOPIAN NEW INITIATIVE

TUCSON, AZ— United States Senate candidate Blake Masters released the following statement:

"Big Tech is at it again. This time it's Apple, with today's 'child safety' announcement. The $2 trillion tech behemoth announced its intention to preemptively scan every Apple user's photos so it can 'provide valuable information to law enforcement.' It's dystopian.

"Conservatives need to wake up: these companies use the same playbook every time. First, they introduce 'necessary protections' to take on a real problem — something awful like child abuse, which no one in his right mind would defend. They then put in place processes that allow them to secretly review your private information and correspondence. If they see something they don't like, they'll report you to law enforcement. Before long, they'll be scanning your phone for 'extremism' or 'hateful content,' and everybody who opposes our new oligarchy will be a target.

"Big Tech now operates as an extension of a surveillance state that indiscriminately violates your privacy. What the government can't do directly, it just tells Apple to do. But that violates the First and Fourth Amendments all the same. This is what modern tyranny looks like.

"Enough is enough. Your data on your devices should belong to you. We need a new set of legal protections that protect users from being constantly spied on and exploited by massive technology companies... even when the Biden Administration claims it's 'for your own good.'"

My back of envelope: if Trump wins today's AZ in-person vote 63-37% or better, then he wins AZ. (And that vote has mostly not been counted yet.)

Way too early to call AZ for Biden, even if Biden ends up winning there.

For some who have encountered racist policing tactics in Phoenix, any promise of a systemic investigation carries a ring that is both fam...ar and hollow. The outcome of the Justice Department investigation is far from certain.

A bank executive paid $7.6M cash for a Paradise Valley mansion and the owners of Smash Burger restaurants were the buyers of two of metro Phoenix's priciest homes

A year after the Black Is Beautiful beer project here's why the promise to make Arizona craft beer more inclusive 'can't be a one-and-done

Data shows that 76% of NAU faculty are white, according to the university Professor Ricardo Gutierrez thinks that should change and is calling on the new university president to act.

🚨 Want to have dinner with me and Peter Thiel? 🚨

Donate $5,800 to my campaign by end of tomorrow (8/6, PDT) and you can. (Small groups of 4-6, you pay your travel)

If that's too steep, donate $500 by then and get 20 minutes with me via phone, to chat about whatever.

BLAKE MASTERS GATHERS SUPPORT AND CASH; OUTRAISES SITTING ATTORNEY GENERAL

TUCSON, AZ— Just one month after entering the U.S. Senate race to unseat Arizona Democrat Mark Kelly, Blake Masters announced a fundraising haul of $507,893

Masters, a first-time candidate, has raised more in his first month campaigning than each of his GOP opponents raised during their entire first quarters, according to FEC reports. From April to July of this year, Attorney General Mark Brnovich raised just $438k, while other primary opponents reported raising less than $250k from outside donors. Masters is on track to more than double his opponents' fundraising numbers in his first quarter.

"Money isn't the only thing in politics, but unfortunately, without it, you're toast," Masters said. "Mark Kelly and the Democrats are going to raise more than $100 million to try to keep this seat. Republicans need a nominee who can bring new energy, new voters, and new donors to the fight.

"We have the momentum. You would not believe the number of first-time donors and

"Most people end up having kids" misses the point. The developed world's fertility crisis isn't just about childlessness (though that is a problem). People aren't having as many kids as they want, they're unable to conceive as late as they've been told they can, etc.

I like @ebruenig but this piece feels evasive and nihilistic. Similar to @mattyglesias, she uses her uncommon receptivity to conservative takes just to turn around and say "nothing to see here," reassuring liberal peers

And it's far too materialist: she codes "caring about children" as "caring about government programs." Yes, the economics matter greatly. I'm campaigning on this notion that in America you ought to be able to afford to raise a family on one income. But there's more at play here

It's intriguing how the progressive left--Bernie, AOC, the 'squad', the whole crew that normally tweets 10 times per day and has opinions on everything--goes absolutely mute when confronted by some hard, inconvenient reality outside the US liberal bubble like Cuba or Afghanistan.

Gentlemen,

wanted to formally request an opinion regarding proof of Covid vaccinat on as it relates to a person s ability to patronize a private business The question is, can a private company compe an individual to prove that they have received a vaccination before that person can patronize the business? For example can a domest c airline carrier require proof of vaccination as a prerequisite for flying, under their contract of carriage? What about a restaurant gym, clothing store, etc? Are there any other instances where a private company can demand persona medica information as a prerequisite for patronage?

BLAKE MASTERS ON MARK KELLY'S VOTE AGAINST THE WALL

TUCSON, AZ— United States Senate candidate Blake Masters released the following statement:

"When it comes to defending our border, Mark Kelly is all talk and no action. It's no surprise that Kelly voted in lockstep with all the Democrats (except one) to prevent border wall construction — which has already been paid for — from being included in the infrastructure bill.

"Let's be clear: having a completed border wall is literally 'infrastructure.' Almost everything the Democrats are trying to cram into this bill is not. Amnesty is not infrastructure. 'Diversity Recruitment' initiatives are not infrastructure. 'Invasive Plant Elimination' programs that cost $250 million are not infrastructure.

"And don't think Senator Kelly is just 'confused', he sits on crucial committees that are supposed to oversee actual infrastructure. If Mark Kelly really wanted to solve the border crisis, he would have voted with Senator Joe Manchin, the only Democrat in the Senate who recognized that funding the completion of the border wall is necessary.

"More than 200,000 migrants illegally crossed our southern border last month alone. Mark Kelly's vote is a slap in the face to our law enforcement officers and our state

It's not (necessarily) that the judge is personally hostile to the very idea of border enforcement. Rather, it's important to realize that this is a "systemic" problem within our overwhelmingly progressive national elite

1 3 15

Blake Masters

@bgmasters

Follow

"Racism" doesn't really mean anything to our elites, it's just the magic word they use to justify and increase their own power. If something is "racist," that means someone somewhere in the web of progressive institutions is empowered to fix it, or should be hired to fix it.

8:45 PM · 20 Aug 2021

1 13 27

Blake Masters @bgmasters 7m

This reality systematically skews elite culture's "racism" detection heuristic. Elite culture functionally accepts false positives (seeing racism where there is none) far more readily than it accepts false negatives, or true negatives for that matter

Blake Masters @bgmasters 7m

The overall result is a collective cultural pathology similar to an autoimmune disorder, where the immune system loses the ability to distinguish healthy tissue from pathogens, and so ends up attacking well-functioning organs. That is how progressive "antiracism" works.

1 4 8

Blake Masters @bgmasters 6m

When progressive elites act out this pathology, their motives feel pure on the inside — they're just fighting "racism"! — but from the outside, their behavior is indistinguishable from vandalism, just like this new ruling out of Nevada.

The real question isn't whether the new opinion is wrong (it is), but how a federal judge could have written it in the first place.

The answer is motivated reasoning. To put it simply, this is the kind of result a judge only reaches because he or she really, really wants to.

Blake Masters @bgmasters · 59m

But why would a judge want to strike down this statute (which, by the way, is the single most prosecuted federal crime)? Why does a federal judge want to find that the law is racist, so as to stop the United States from punishing people who repeatedly violate its borders?

The legal theory here is so bonkers even far-left Judge William Simon rejected it (Simon previously enjoined President Trump's immigration policies and gave the ACLU special riot passes in Portland). Worth a read, if you can look past the virtue-signaling. webshare.law.ucla.edu/CILP/Machic...de

The real question isn't whether the new opinion is wrong (it is), but how a federal judge could have written it in the first place.

The answer is motivated reasoning. To put it simply, this is the kind of result a judge only reaches because he or she really, really wants to.

It's not (necessarily) that the judge is personally hostile to the very idea of border enforcement. Rather, it's important to realize that this is a systemic problem within our overwhelmingly progressive national elite.

Even judges feel the tug of the ever-growing "antiracist" consensus, it's now deeply embedded in our culture.

That's how, in a very short time, crazy legal theories can go from "creative but untenable" to "one or two cases support it" to "everyone who's not evil believes this."

In any case, the problem s much deeper than a bad judge here or there. The problem is an elite culture that cannot be relied on to rationally evaluate claims of racism

The only long-term fix is a complete and total shutdown of wokeness and CRT and all they imply.

A federal judge in Nevada just struck down the law that makes it a crime for deported illegal aliens to illegally reenter the country.

This is an obvious law that any self-respecting country should have, but the judge found it... you guessed it... racist!

Best line in the NYT story about hospital monopolies is the comment by the regulator when asked about hospitals illegally hiding prices.

"She added that hospitals that do not post prices within 90 days of a warning letter "may be sent a second warning letter."

This is Alan from Green Valley. When VP Pence came to town in 2019, some Antifa punks set up right next to Alan's group & caused a scene. Instead of escalating, Alan smiled and told them, "I'll pray for you." They did not like that. "It was like throwing water on a witch."

People joke, but these are commissars. They're not part of the agency's core mission, they're effectively outside the chain of command, they can ruin anyone (incl bosses) for political offenses, their primary duty is to create and monitor effectiveness of propaganda on employees.

It's the opposite of rogue. It's more central to the regime's power & purpose than the agencies it monitors. The DOJ could be disbanded, restructured, and recreated w/a new mission a together, and a commissar would be assigned to the new agency on day one

If the genuine left is about working families and the dignity of labor, then we old labor progressives have to admit the conversation on working families shifted towards the Right. Why? Because the [illegible] seems uncomfortable with National interests (jingoism!) and Family above all.

I have been in rooms with @JDVance1 @bgmasters or @peterthiel where the entire focus is hours spent trying to figure out plans to help US working families make the markets work for them. I can't get that quality of conversation on the Left. And I'm sometimes the only Democrat.

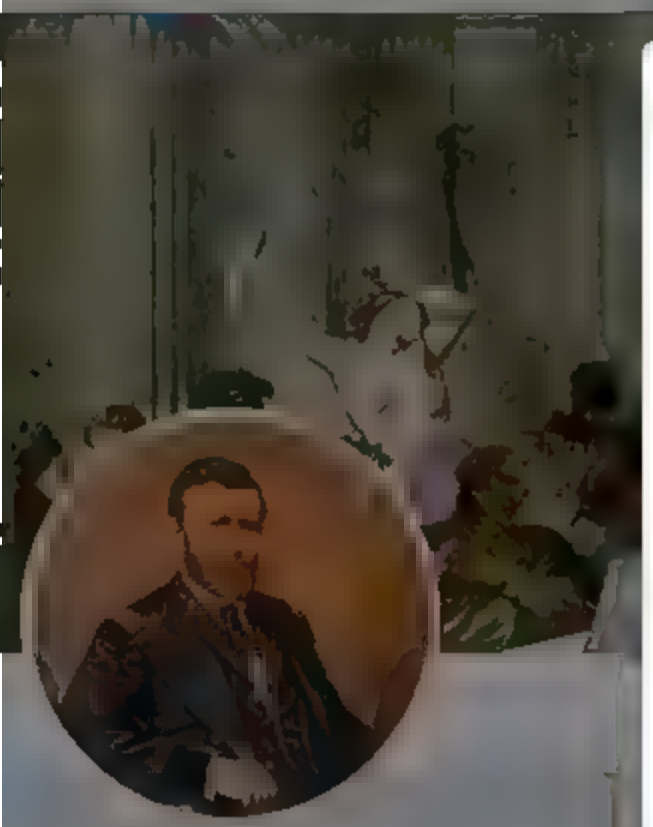
You may despise [illegible] if you are on the Left. But in private, he focuses on US working families. When we on the nominal Left now hear "US working families" we start in like we don't know our own history. "Why US?" "Why Working?" "Why Families?"

We walked off our post.



7 10 122

Eric Weinstein ✓ @EricRWeinstein · 1h

The Left abandoned the Left. The Right is in the process of taking over our best abandoned real estate. Time to wake up.

Anti-war. Pro-dignity of labor. Pro-family. Pro-Patriotism. Anti-censorship. Anti-totalitarian. Pro-freedom. Anti-authoritarian.

"Welcome to Wisconsin!"...

AP AP NEWS

U.S. officials at intake centers in the United Arab Emirates and in Wisconsin have identified numerous incidents in which Afghan girls have been presented to authorities as the "wives" of much older men. While child marriage is not uncommon in Afghanistan, the U.S. has strict policies against human trafficking that include prosecutions for offenders and sanctions for countries that don't crack down on it.

Roe & Casey are bad (in terms of jurisprudence and policy), the federal government should establish fetal personhood, Congress can debate the precise cutoff but it should be pretty early. This is a workable solution we can get to this decade and will save millions of lives.

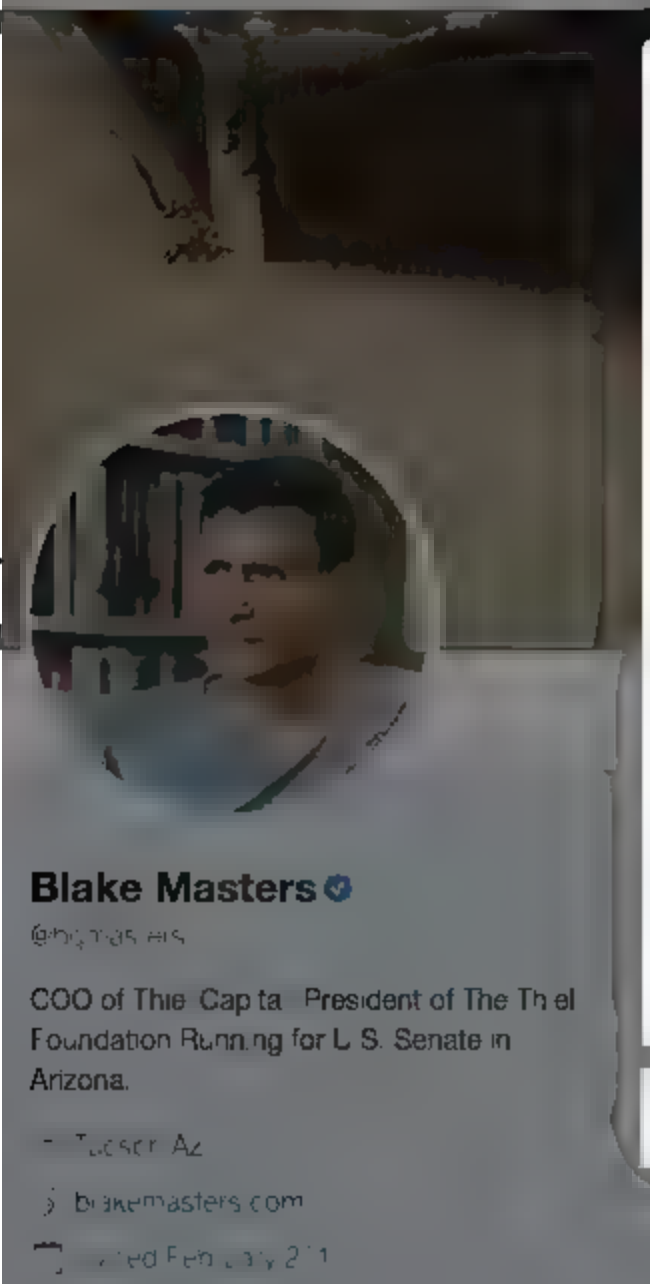
BLAKE MASTERS ON THE FAUCI SCANDAL

TUCSON, AZ – In response to the documents published by The Intercept today, United States Senate candidate Blake Masters released the following statement:

"The key lesson of COVID is that our so-called 'expert' class is incompetent, overrated, and hyper-political. Abetted by the media, they continually lie and obfuscate. The public is left trying to piece together the truth. We know the virus came from Wuhan. China almost certainly leaked from a lab; the media would call you a conspiracy theorist for saying this a few months ago, by the way). We now know that Fauci was involved in laundering grant money to fund the coronavirus research at that lab, the Wuhan Institute of Virology. And we know he lied about it.

"Time and again, we reward and promote people who have shiny credentials from allegedly prestigious institutions, and then get burned when they turn out to be profiteers and liars. They never take responsibility. Instead, they are celebrated as heroes in the media. National Geographic is producing a hagiography on Fauci this month. Meanwhile our tech platforms routinely censor any criticism of the public health establishment.



"No more of this. We're done with these elites who are more loyal to China than to America. We have to investigate and follow the money. We have to ask the questions the media won't. Everyone who had a hand in creating this virus and then lied about it — whether Chinese or American — must be held responsible for the havoc they've wreaked."

A huge proportion of this country has chosen to be vaccinated.

And now a tyrannical public health and administrative bureaucracy has decided to punish anyone who won t comply.

Suppose you wanted to use this tiny flaw in an otherwise perfect election system to throw out the ballots of people who voted the wrong way. What would you do?

You would probably push hard to encourage voting by mail. You'd push to extend the voting period for weeks in advance of the election. And you'd push to allow ballots to come in for days afterwards (it's 7 days in California!)

If one corrupt person can check one ballot manually every 10 seconds, that's 360 per hour, or 2,880 per day. If the election voting period lasts "4 weeks", then one bad apple can process 57,600 ballots.

But that sounds like a lot of effort! What if four people worked just "one" diligent 8-hour shift, flashlight-sorting a pile of 50-50 votes?

That would be 11,520 ballots processed — more than the official margin between Biden and Trump in Arizona, for instance. In one day's work

You missed the 2nd step: they wouldn't toss the ballots out they would make new ones with a "NO" vote and submit them. Nobody would know and the system would show the citizen voted and the 11k vote swing becomes 22,000

BLAKE MASTERS ON THE CALIFORNIA RECALL

Tucson, AZ — Following multiple reports of irregularities in the ongoing California election, Arizona candidate for U.S. Senate Blake Masters released the following statement:

"If you want to know why we need election integrity laws, just look at the California recall. It's a joke. All of the 'temporary' COVID election measures are now permanent, with predictable results. Digital touchscreen voting machines are glitching. Voters are being turned away at the polls told they've already voted, and forced to fill out provisional forms. Security footage shows criminals stealing hundreds of ballots from mailboxes. Now, officials say it may take days to count the votes. Will there be an investigation? Of course not.

"Every state should pass voter ID laws, end universal mail-in voting, and purge voter rolls of those who have moved or died. The total absence of election integrity in the California recall is an embarrassment."

Reports of dead people voting in Milwaukee and Detroit, should they be investigated? No, the media just reports about Qanon.

Meanwhile any discussion of voter fraud is censored, disproven-in-advance by 'experts' and 'science'

Vote integrity must be defended and transparent.

Reports of dead people voting in Milwaukee and Detroit, should they be investigated? No, the media just reports about Qanon.

Meanwhile any discussion of voter fraud is censored, disproven-in-advance by 'experts' and 'science'

Vote integrity must be defended and transparent.

The “white rage” theatrics suggested that General Milley was unfocused and incompetent.

Afghanistan proved it.

Now, reportedly subverting his chain of command and basically spying for China? That’s a soft coup.

In any well-functioning country he’d be fired and investigated.

I'm quoted here describing the difference b/n Senator Sinema and Senator Mark Kelly.

I disagree with Sinema on so much, but credit where it's due: she promised to be independent, and has been.

Kelly, by contrast, hides away and tows the party line.

Republicans need to reacquaint themselves with their history of antitrust enforcement, and realize that huge concentrations of power in private hands can violate people's liberties just as much as government can.

Who are you kidding, you'd never stoop to sending your kids to a mere public school. If you weren't homeschooling your kids would be going to Castlehill Country Day School so they wouldn't have to mix with the kids of the peasants and commoners.

Solid education platform by Arizona senate candidate

Education, not indoctrination

Every mom I speak to tells me the same thing: the schools are bad and getting worse. The curricula are jammed full of progressive programming. Standards and outcomes are plummeting. We need to stand up to teachers' unions, support school choice in all its forms, and defend homeschoolers. School should be useful—what happened to shop and home economics? And don't get me started on higher ed. Most colleges are rackets that should be held accountable for their poor results. We need a system that empowers parents, encourages kids to think for themselves, and puts an end to the political brainwashing.

Reminder: Twitter and Facebook were so convinced this true story was "fake news" they banned it from their platforms. Twitter went further and actually suspended the @nypost account for ... accurately reporting a story of great public interest during a general election.

> FIRST IN PLAYBOOK — Ben Schreckinger's "The Bidens: Inside the First Family's Fifty Year Rise to Power" out today, finds evidence that some of the purported HUNTER BIDEN laptop material is genuine, including two emails at the center of last October's controversy.
> A person who had independent access to Hunter Biden's emails confirmed he did receive a 2015 email from a Ukrainian businessman thanking him for the chance to meet Joe Biden. The same goes for a 2017 email in which a proposed equity breakdown of a venture with Chinese energy executives includes the line, "10 held by H for the big guy?" (This person recalled seeing both emails, but was not in a position to compare the leaked emails word-for-word to the originals.)
> MORE: Emails released by a Swedish government agency also match emails in the leaked cache, and two people who corresponded with Hunter Biden confirmed emails from the cache were genuine.

Facebook was so worried about the story they reduced its distribution BEFORE its army of "fact checkers" reviewed the story. Then politico casually confirms the story is true almost a year later. Incredible.

The good news is that I was able to insert two NEW ideas into the mix:

1) Data ownership. You own your data, you should be in control of it.

2) Digital rights. Rights that protect us against a corporate-run surveillance state (there are none right now).

The polls leading up to Nov 2020 were also fake. Propaganda. Of course, polling is rarely spot-on. But all the polls showing Biden up "12 points" nationally were so off, it's clear they weren't even trying to be accurate. No, they were designed to suppress the Trump vote

The media and Big Tech had their thumb on the scale. Anti-Trump disinformation became the official narrative. Facebook axed the Hunter Biden laptop story! A true story, in a real newspaper, yanked off of Facebook weeks before an election.

We have to make election security a priority. We simply must, or the U.S.A. will be gone forever. It starts with stopping the indiscriminate mass mailing of mail-in ballots, and requiring voter ID for every ballot, mail-in or in person.

AZ AG "Brnovich has repeatedly been a roadblock to election integrity activists...Trump described Brno's performance as "lackluster," as Brno assured TV audiences & the Washington Post that the election was above board."

Now he wants to be senator.

Big news — I raised more than $1M for my U.S. Senate campaign last quarter!

Thank you to the thousands of you who pitched in. We are only going to build from here.

BLAKE MASTERS' U.S. SENATE CAMPAIGN TOPS $1 MILLION IN Q3

TUCSON, AZ — U.S. Senate candidate Blake Masters has raised $1,010,091 from over 3,100 donors in his first FEC filing quarter. This figure more than doubles what Masters' primary opponents were able to raise in their first quarters. The other candidates — who include the sitting attorney general (who President Trump calls "lackluster") and a businessman who has resorted to self-funding — have yet to release their Q3 fundraising numbers.

"We hit our goal, and it's huge," Masters said. "This number represents enthusiasm. First time donors and influential conservatives, Arizona independents and veteran GOP activists alike; people across the spectrum are excited to have someone new in this race, a fresh and dynamic candidate who you can actually imagine winning and leading this state forward."

"This is just the beginning," Masters continued. "We're going to have to raise over $100 million to beat the Democrat incumbent Mark Kelly. They say the first million is the hardest, but I'm not complacent. I will make sure we have what's needed to fight and win."

If someone with a MAGA hat harassed a US Senator in a bathroom - the FBI would've already sent a 16 member SWAT team to raid their home this morning, arrested them, and held them without bond - and - it would be a national news story breathlessly covered 24/7 for 6 months.

BLAKE MASTERS ON THE FACEBOOK DEBACLE

"These companies are stagnant and have huge vulnerabilities. They also knowingly hurt kids."

TUCSON, AZ— Yesterday, Facebook, WhatsApp, and Instagram went down for six hours, the worst outage for the parent company since 2008. Today, the Senate heard testimony that Facebook knowingly harms teenage users. In response, United States Senate candidate Blake Masters released the following statement:

"In the past two days, we've seen more evidence of what so many of us already know. Facebook and its subsidiaries are a dangerous combination of incompetent and malicious. These corporations are not run by infallible technology geniuses, they are stagnant software monopolies with huge vulnerabilities. If Facebook can go down over a simple routing protocol error (a guy had to cut into their server closet with an angle grinder to fix it), imagine what would happen if China decided to launch a cyberattack. And today we've seen more confirmation that executives at Facebook and Instagram knowingly warp our children in order to make more money.

"Big Tech has become too powerful. We need to give power back to the people. You should control your private information online. You should be able to make informed decisions about how your data can be used. You should have the power to shield your kids from anorexia propaganda, porn, and critical race theory. And you should

A few weeks ago a #Southwest pilot spoke w/me after an event in Mesa. He sensed that SWA would soon mandate the vax. He objected but also has young kids to provide for, so he was upset.

I encouraged him to pray on it, & to organize with colleagues and push back. Good for them!

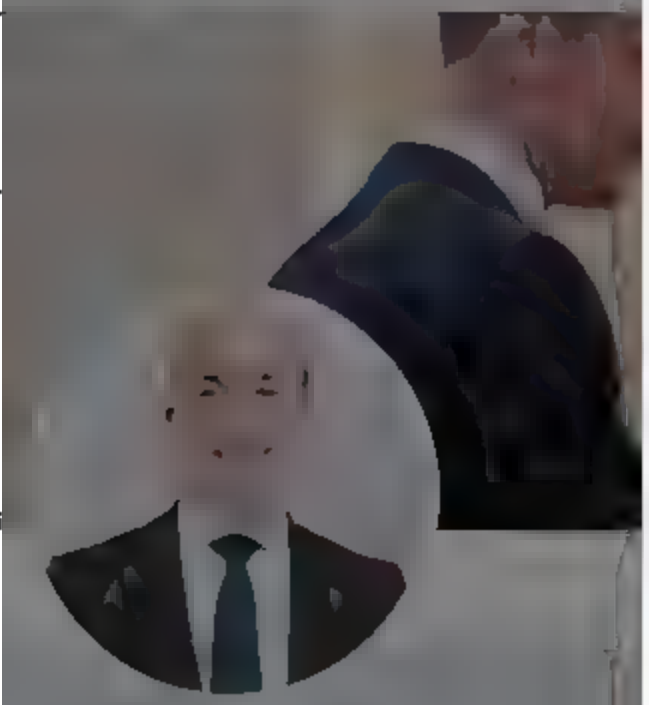
PRESIDENT TRUMP'S NATIONAL SECURITY ADVISOR ROBERT O'BRIEN ENDORSES BLAKE MASTERS FOR U.S. SENATE

TUCSON, AZ— President Trump's national security advisor Robert O'Brien has endorsed Blake Masters in the Arizona 2022 Senate race. O'Brien put out the following comment on Monday:



"I enthusiastically endorse Blake Masters for the U.S. Senate. I visited Arizona several times while serving as National Security Advisor to President Trump. Blake embodies the values of Arizonans like President Trump and President Reagan. He believes in a peace through strength approach to American foreign and national security policy. In June of 2020, I traveled to Phoenix to speak about the threat of the Chinese Communist Party to our basic freedoms. Blake will stand up for Arizona and America against all challenges, including the CCP. As an entrepreneur and bestselling author on business and technology, he understands that America must bring its critical supply chains home. Blake has the business background to bring new, innovative companies to the state. If we want bold solutions, we need a new generation of leaders like Blake in office. Blake will be a phenomenal U.S. Senator."

In response, Blake Masters put out this statement: "I am honored to receive the endorsement of such a respected and knowledgeable man. When it comes to national security – and especially our efforts to curb malign Chinese influence – Robert and I agree that the status quo isn't working; we have to elect leaders who actually put America first."

The explosive thing about the Loudoun County story, shocking though it is in itself, is what it implies. People already suspect they're being lied to, unrepentantly, about every important issue, by people who hate them. In this case, looks like they're right. In how many more?

The National Memorial itself is beautiful. Montezuma Pass, the surrounding countryside, are gorgeous.

But our southern border is also the biggest crime scene in 🇺🇸. Every household in this photo knows what it's like to have cartel operators cross their land with near impunity.

This hilltop, about 100m into Mexico, is a cartel observation post. A scout peaked his head out to scope us out, but ducked away before I could get a photo.

From here, he can observe about 50 miles of border. He tells his drug and human smuggler buddies when to cross.

Dear Colleagues,

President Biden recently issued an Executive Order that requires institutions that contract with the federal government, such as the Un versity of Arizona, to comply with guidance from the Safer Federal Workforce Task Force. The Task Force has issued guidance that requires such institutions to ensure their employees are fully vaccinated for COVID-19 by December 8, 2021. The University has hundreds of millions of dollars in federal contracts, funding critical research, employment, and educational efforts, and already has received amended federal contracts that include this requirement While we respect individual opin ons regarding the vaccine, we will continue with these mission-critical endeavors and will be complying with this new

REPUBLICAN STUDY COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN REP. JIM BANKS ENDORSES BLAKE MASTERS FOR U.S. SENATE

TUCSON, AZ— Chairman of the Republican Study Committee Congressman Jim Banks (R-IN) has endorsed Blake Masters in the Arizona 2022 U.S. Senate race

Congressman Banks put out the following comment

"I'm excited to announce my support for Blake Masters in his bid for the U.S. Senate in Arizona. Blake represents the future of our party and our country. He's pro worker, pro family, and America First. I'm optimistic about his candidacy because Blake has the background to actually get things done. We all know that Big Tech has been weaponized against us and now poses a huge threat. Blake has worked in Silicon Valley, he knows the ideology that motivates these tech oligarchs, and he's committed to stopping them. Not to mention, Blake represents our best shot to unseat the Democrat incumbent, Mark Kelly, and to take back the Senate Majority. I'm proud to endorse Blake Masters for Senate."

Blake Masters responded

"I am so honored to receive the endorsement of Congressman Banks, who I admire as a leader and as a friend. Jim Banks' faith in the American people and his willingness to fight for us set the bar for all who serve in Congress. I'll be excited to work with him when I get to Washington."

Statement by Donald J. Trump, 45th President of the United States of America

The largest caravan in history is coming towards us, and we are totally unprepared and doing nothing about it. Complete the wall and get tough. Our Country is being systematically destroyed before our very eyes!

The original 1913 income tax was 1% for people with incomes above $3,000 (about $80,000 today) and 6% on $500,000 or more ($13 million). About 3% of the population was taxed. Just keep that in mind when Democrats lie and say the wealth tax will remain targeted at just the top.

or how about all the people whose businesses were destroyed by violent riots last year?

But no. Biden wants it to go to illegal immigrants (and watch. 1/3 will go to trial lawyers and 1/3 to left wing PACs/ngos)

China banned cryptocurrency last week.

Let's do the opposite. The US government should buy a strategic reserve of Bitcoin — Fort Nakamoto, the new Fort Knox.

This reconciliation bill isn't about a budget.

It's about mass amnesty for illegal immigrants and unlimited cheap labor for big corporations.

I offer an alternative. Share plans for skills-based training in data, cloud computing, and emergent scripting languages like Rust and Solidity for Americans, specifically post K-12 and those caught in the quick sand of a backwards growing industry. The country needs vision here

REPUBLICAN STUDY COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN REP. JIM BANKS ENDORSES BLAKE MASTERS FOR U.S. SENATE

TUCSON, AZ— Chairman of the Republican Study Committee Congressman Jim Banks (R-IN) has endorsed Blake Masters in the Arizona 2022 U.S. Senate race

Congressman Banks put out the following comment

"I'm excited to announce my support for Blake Masters in his bid for the U.S. Senate in Arizona. Blake represents the future of our party and our country. He's pro worker, pro family, and America First. I'm optimistic about his candidacy because Blake has the background to actually get things done. We all know that Big Tech has been weaponized against us and now poses a huge threat. Blake has worked in Silicon Valley, he knows the ideology that motivates these tech oligarchs, and he's committed to stopping them. Not to mention, Blake represents our best shot to unseat the Democrat incumbent, Mark Kelly, and to take back the Senate Majority. I'm proud to endorse Blake Masters for Senate."

Blake Masters responded

"I am so honored to receive the endorsement of Congressman Banks, who I admire as a leader and as a friend. Jim Banks' faith in the American people and his willingness to fight for us set the bar for all who serve in Congress. I'll be excited to work with him when I get to Washington."

They could just as easily funnel it through companies. The FEC isn't going to stop it either way. I guess at least they can stop pretending

Govt is either constrained with specific functions, or it ends up consuming everything and rewarding the donor class.

Youngkin won largely because of Democrats' insane rhetoric on schools -- that Critical Race Theory is somehow both 'not happening' and that it's 'obviously good.' Guess what? Parents don't want insane race ideology in schools. Not in VA in 2021, and not in Arizona in 2022

That half right. Actually, Youngkin ran against racism.

But you SHOULD have anxiety that schools are teaching kids that some races or genders are morally superior to others. Because we know this is happening, and it needs to stop.

It's just absurd to call any concern about CRT some kind of dog whistle. Critical theory is the philosophical underpinning of the Democratic Party. Just ask the smug politicos who chortle anytime someone mentions this stuff: which part of CRT do you disagree with exactly?

House Dems want to vote TONIGHT on a 2,000+ page bill that spends trillions, grants amnesty, and rewrites the tax code.

There have been zero hearings, the bill is still changing, and Dems don't even know what's in it.

It's proving to be a nice diversion, nothing else. I realize you're running for office so peddling this stuff is kind of table stakes for GOP candidates but come on, the Durham investigation is thinner than the ice your campaign is standing on.

If you're an America First person, this should be extremely encouraging: @bgmasters not only doubled up the closest candidate on Q3 fundraising but he's gone from basically zero in the polls to 14 pts and solidly in contention after being the the race roughly 3 months.

> An internal poll commissioned by the pro-Masters Saving Arizona super PAC this month and obtained by The Hill showed Brnovich's unfavorable rating jumped from 9 percent to 20 percent since the launch of the ad and that Masters's support in the primary among likely voters rose from 5 percent to 14 percent.
> The poll showed Brnovich leading Masters by a 29-5 margin in August compared to a 26-14 margin in October.

1) The vast majority of disinformation, propaganda and lies that flooded the country over the last 5 years did not come from MAGA boomers on Facebook or 4Chan teenagers but the largest and most influential liberal corporate media outlets.

The ICA, Industrial Commission of Arizona, say businesses in Arizona do not have to follow Biden and OSHA's vaccine mandate. OSHA gave the ICA the authority to make our own safety rules in 1974. And no media is reporting this because they don't want you to know this.

Industrial Commission of Arizona Statement
OSHA Vaccine Emergency Temporary Standard

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Phoenix 11/04/2021

Today, the Federal Occupational Safety and Health Administration ("OSHA") issued a sweeping emergency temporary standard ("ETS") without any opportunity for public comment prior to it going into effect. The ETS, which requires qualified employers (100 or more employees) to develop, implement, and enforce a mandatory COVID-19 vaccination policy, would force employees to choose between being vaccinated against their will, completing weekly COVID-19 testing (at the employee's expense), or losing their jobs.

Although messaging from OSHA might suggest that the ETS is immediately binding on employers across the country, including in Arizona, this is not the case. Arizona is one of 22 OSHA-approved state plans that have exclusive responsibility for the development and enforcement of occupational safety and health standards within their states. Since 1974, when Arizona's state plan was formally approved by OSHA, the Industrial Commission of Arizona has proudly worked to establish a model program for protecting the safety and health of Arizona's workers in every corner of the state and in every industry.

Under Arizona's long-approved state-plan procedures, the Industrial Commission has exclusive authority to decide if, when, and to what extent the State of Arizona will adopt the OSHA vaccination ETS. The Industrial Commission has diligently followed these approved procedures without issue for 47 years and will follow them as it reviews the 490-page OSHA vaccination ETS publication that OSHA only revealed today. Until such time that the Industrial Commission takes formal action to adopt all or part of the vaccination ETS, however, the temporary standards are not binding or enforceable against Arizona's private and public sector employers and employees.

BLAKE MASTERS ON AG BRNOVICH'S POLITICAL PLAY-ACTING & POOR TRACK RECORD

TUCSON, AZ — In response to recent news coverage, U.S. Senate candidate Blake Masters has released the following statement:

"Last November, when it would have made a difference, Attorney General Mark Brnovich said that the 2020 election was 'fair,' and that there was 'no evidence' of fraud or irregularities. He was one of the only people who could have done something, instead he chose to do nothing. Now, a full year later, and, coincidentally, now that he's struggling to raise money for his U.S. Senate campaign, Brnovich has had a change of heart and has opened an investigation. I support that effort, but I also know better than to expect much from Brnovich. This has always been his playbook: Do the bare minimum, too little and too late, and then brag about supposedly great legal accomplishments. And we're supposed to be impressed?

"Mark Brnovich is not serious about safe and secure elections. He did nothing about ballot harvesting in 2020. He has failed to investigate how Mark Zuckerberg's millions of dollars in grants influenced Arizona election officials. And now he's just trying to buy time until the GOP primary election next August. The people of Arizona deserve a real investigation with real results. I wish Brnovich were the sort of Attorney General who could deliver that — instead, he'll probably just lock someone up for voting twice, call it a day, and pretend to be a great champion of election integrity."

So dumb — the moment you criticize woke generals, misguided wars, and incompetent bureaucracy, you get accused of being "anti-veteran."

That's backwards: the best way to honor our service members & veterans is to make sure politics doesn't compromise their preparedness & safety.

> Dillon Rosenblatt ✓ @DillonReedRose
> A source sent me this interview of #AZSen candidate Blake Masters where he seemingly trashes the military — especially US Generals. Worth pointing out 1. because it's Veterans Day & 2. three of his GOP opponents were in the military as is his Dem opponent. soundcloud.com/frank-camp-468

My grandfather (AKA "Poppy") needed his leg amputated shortly after he served in WWII. I grew up watching him deal with the dysfunctional VA bureaucracy. Frankly, it's embarrassing how poorly we treat our veterans. Taking care of them needs to be top priority.

Eastern Arizona College also has a good mascot, a Gila monster named Gila Hank

Legend has it that a group of liberals once complained about his handgun, and started a campaign to get rid of it so the college decided Hank needed a second gun

The prosecution withheld evidence, and it seems clear they did it on purpose.

This trial should be over, mistrial with prejudice, and the prosecutor sanctioned and investigated.

I supported getting out of Afghanistan; I attacked Biden b/c his incompetence led to Americans being needlessly killed

Now I attack you for cheerleading us into war in Iraq, which had nothing to do with 9/11 except for the way liars like you took advantage of a grieving country.

> David Frum @davidfrum
> In his video ad, Blake Masters attacked Biden for ending the 9/11 wars. When thrust on defense, Masters reverses himself to condemn the 9/11 wars. This is the difference between the Pence mindset and the Trump mindset.

It's just absurd to call any concern about CRT some kind of dog whistle. Critical theory is the philosophical underpinning of the Democratic Party. Just ask the smug politicos who chortle anytime someone mentions this stuff: which part of CRT do you disagree with exactly?

When someone tells you they want our children to look at our society and analyze it through the lens of race or gender, that is critical theory. This is often masked as vague calls for more "conversations"

RALLY AND PROTEST TO GET MURDERER
KYLE RITTENHOUSE OFF OUR CAMPUS
DEC. 1ST, 3:30PM
Nelson Fine Arts Center Courtyard
ASU Tempe

DEMANDS

1. WITHDRAW KYLE RITTENHOUSE FROM ASU
2. RELEASE A STATEMENT AGAINST WHITE SUPREMACY & RACIST MURDERER KYLE RITTENHOUSE.
3. REAFFIRM SUPPORT FOR THE MULTICULTURAL CENTER ON CAMPUS AS A SPACE SAFE FROM WHITE SUPREMACY
4. REDIRECT FUNDING FROM ASU PD TO SUPPORT THE MULTICULTURAL CENTER AND ESTABLISHMENT OF A CAARE CENTER ON CAMPUS

Even with a not-guilty verdict from a flawed "justice" system – Kyle Rittenhouse is still guilty to his victims and the families of those victims.Join us to demand from ASU that these demands be met to protect students from a violent, blood-thirsty murderer.

@ColumbiaBugle and @bgmasters Read the entire Constitution, not just the parts you like. Art I, Sec 8 gives Congress the right to raise an army from militias, and thus the right to bear arms in service of militias. This BS about unfettered rights to have an armory is just wrong of course, she could see he noticed, they all did. They were always watching Bob, jumping up to help him, getting something for him, or fixing something near him that wasn't quite right

That was the heart of the problem, how they treated Bob, too tenderly, like a thousand-year-old vase. It just reinforced his feeling that something wasn't right, wasn't whole, about him. One day that summer, in lawn chairs out in Bina's backyard, a glass of iced tea slipped from Bob's numb left hand and spilled at his feet. "Oh, God," Phyllis said, "can't you hold on to anything?" Bina and Kenny looked at Phyllis like she'd just spat on the Bible. How could she talk to Bob that way?

But, of course, that was the right way. That's one of the things Bob loved about Phyllis. she never treated him like a cripple, an invalid. God, how he hated that word. She'd tell him flat out not to wait to be waited on. "Do it yourself. you can do it!" She'd get after him to work on his body. "You've got that leg exercise to do. why don't you get that out of the way?" And she was so matter-of-fact, so sure of him and what he could do. "Pick up your feet, Bob. There's no reason to shuffle like that!" In time, Bina and the rest realized it was good for Bob. In Phyllis's eyes, he saw himself whole. And why not? She never saw him any other way.

Around town, where the citizens looked at Bob like their own prize experiment (they were the ones who put him back on his feet!), there was a myth already spreading on Phyllis, that she was Bob's therapist at the big Army hospital. Or, better yet, his nurse. She was the gal who nursed him back to life and fell in love. And no matter how many times Bob explained, or how many times Phyllis protested that Bob was well and strong again before she ever met him. well, people believe what they want to believe. Even years later, when he'd risen so high, no one wanted to believe her when she said that he was always the strong one . but she knew.

That September, they packed up the Oldsmobile again and started south, to Arizona, where Bob would go back to college, as a junior. The doctors recommended a hot-weather climate, after all the blood thinners Bob had taken. Of

Just read the report that came out on Apple and China. There are some huge red flags in here — some about the CCP & some about our own tech companies. Here are some thoughts

1) The Chinese Communist Party has a set of laws in place that basically force their corporations and citizens to act as extensions of the Party

There is no private business in China. No privacy from the government. No intellectual property. When a business does particularly well, it draws the CCP's eye.

A major lesson to learn from China? Our government should stake out a position that the only labor, trade, and investment policies we support are those that help Americans — not in an abstract ideological sense, but materially. That's what it means to care about our own people.

A second lesson is that our government shouldn't be afraid to play hardball. Beijing asks Apple to invest in other sectors in exchange for major contracts. We should hold off on major dealings that benefit the CCP until they stop flooding fentanyl over our border

For decades, China built its economy off our backs, and the ideologues running our country (see: Biden in 2019) refused to admit it.

When it comes to international labor, trade, and investment, it's time to wake up we're talking about foreign powers with their own interests

> Flashback to 2019, when a guy with presidential aspirations seemed dismissive towards the massive and ancient nation. At that time Biden rhetorically asked, "China is going to eat our lunch? They can't even figure out how to deal with the fact that they have this great division between the China Sea and the mountains in the east, I mean in the West. They can't figure out how they're going to deal with the corruption that exists within the system. I mean, I you know they're not bad, folks. But guess what. They're not a competition for us."

A major lesson to learn from China? Our government should stake out a position that the only labor, trade, and investment policies we support are those that help Americans — not in an abstract ideological sense, but materially. That's what it means to care about our own people

A second lesson is that our government shouldn't be afraid to play hardball. Beijing asks Apple to invest in other sectors in exchange for major contracts. We should hold off on major dealings that benefit the CCP until they stop flooding fentanyl over our border.

A possible scenario.

Print trillions of dollars
Surprise, inflation

Shut down nuclear energy
Surprise, rolling blackouts

Pay millions to stay home
Surprise, labor shortages

Then, blame corporate greed
Then, price controls
Then, real shortages
Then, seizures
Then, TBD

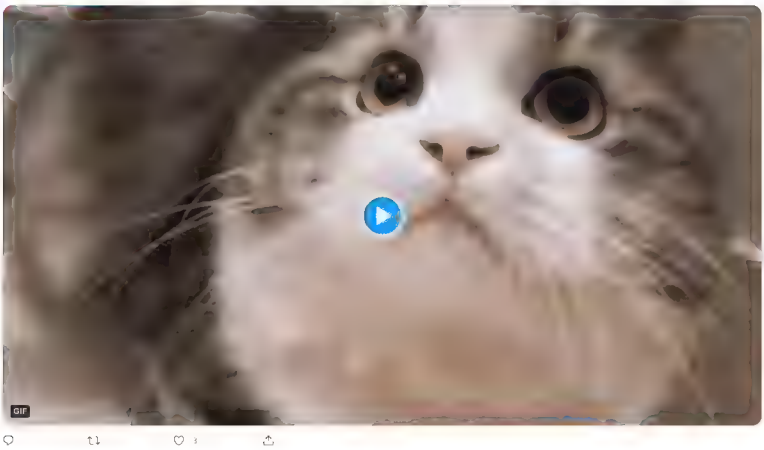
This is a bipartisan thing btw, with the cake baked over the last ~30 years of incompetent administrations.



Invasions and bailouts under Bush, printing under Bush and Trump. It's by no means 100% R or D.

Haven't even gotten to the foreign affairs part of the program.

> Over the last 30 years, the American foreign policy establishment has blown perhaps the biggest lead in human history. From the hyperpower that wins everywhere without fighting, to a declining power that fights everywhere without winning.

What's scary is that if they misunderstand the causes, how are we to believe they'll understand the necessary solutions?

Government can't solve anything that's why it's supposed to be very limited

We're basically just racing to the singularity or some other deus ex machina (i.e. post scarcity) before the plague of government destroys hope

My grandfather (AKA "Poppy") needed his leg amputated shortly after he served in WWII. I grew up watching him deal with the dysfunctional VA bureaucracy. Frankly, it's embarrassing how poorly we treat our veterans. Taking care of them needs to be top priority.

Elon is right in this instance, and there are some good things there, but also a lot of fraud

The guy has been in charge of a handful of companies and none have any retained earnings. Even Tesla is still in the red despite the T valuation and 1% market share.

I love to buy it , but is it open to foreigner nationals ?

Replying to @Mystez

Alas, it is not -- U.S. citizens (or green card holders) only, per U.S. campaign finance laws.

I will try to think of something fun for foreign / international friends of Zero to One in coming days. It just can't help my campaign at all.

still thinking through ethereum vs solana

what is your opinion here? trying to find a good home for it. we want to do the 3D model on chain if possible. possibly host the texture on IPFS, or maybe an SVG texture. would basically like to make it maximally useful in the future

Joe @265 @ 12m

Putting in a lot of work for the end result to be hosted on IPFS. There's already a solution to store the entire product immutably on chain for customers at a fraction of the cost.

And bigger picture. This is a huge opportunity for you to lead the way and show patriots how return power to the individual.

OK just hit 95. 4 left. I'm going to change the website to "sold out" as I don't want anyone to overbuy any and be disappointed (though refunded!)

If you want one of the last 4, DM me, the fairest way to do it is simply: first 4 to DM and provide the KYC info and send funds.

I've been saying since March that we can't beat COVID with an "Articles of Confederation" response. We have a national government for a reason. If Donald Trump won't use it to beat this killer disease, I know someone who will, starting on 1/20/21.

Twitter banning MTG (for posting facts about COVID and vaccine injury no less) is a complete abuse of power.

It's far past time to repeal 230 protections and treat the Big Tech companies as common carriers.

We raised $1.38M last quarter. Can you feel the momentum?

BLAKE MASTERS

FOR U.S. SENATE

For immediate release
Monday, January 3, 2021

CONTACT: press@blakemasters.com

Q4 FUNDRAISING NUMBERS:
MASTERS RAISES A WHOPPING $1.38 MILLION

TUCSON, AZ – U.S. Senate candidate Blake Masters has raised $1.38 million in Q4 2021.

This fundraising haul builds upon Masters' initial $1.01M raised in Q3 2021, his first FEC filing quarter. Whereas many candidates often struggle in their second filing quarters (because friends and family donations are exhausted) and in Q4's (because donors are busy with the holidays), Masters has shown that he can raise serious money no matter what time of the year it is.

Masters' opponents in the Republican primary – who include the sitting attorney general (who President Trump calls "lackluster") and a businessman who has resorted to self-funding – have yet to release their Q4 numbers.

"My campaign is generating a lot of excitement. We are pulling in new supporters and new sources of funding," Masters said. "This is going to be one of the most expensive races in the country, and Republicans can't afford to put forward someone who refuses to do the work I am outraising everyone else. I will continue to do so, and I will have the resources to beat Mark Kelly in November."

The Arizona Republican primary will be held on August 2, 2022.

Homeschoolers are not overly sheltered young people living in a bubble. They are free thinkers and the last people on the planet to buy into some of the lies being pushed on young people today.

For many, this makes them dangerous.

A slide from Columbia medical school training. Can't wait until heart surgeons prioritize "dismantling systems of power and race-based hierarchy."

REDEFINING PROFESSIONALISM

If professionalism—as one way to remedy racism in medical education and patient care—is grounded in an authentic commitment to social and racial justice, professional behaviors should flow from an internal set of values that reflect not only the imperative that medical care be offered to all people regardless of their social position (identity) or background, but also that physicians understand and dismantle the systems of power that gave rise to the race-based hierarchy that characterizes U.S. society *

The media and Big Tech had their thumb on the scale. Anti-Trump disinformation became the official narrative. Facebook axed the Hunter Biden laptop story. A true story. In a real newspaper, yanked off of Facebook weeks before an election.

Then the mess on Election Day itself. Fox News calling Arizona irresponsibly early. ??? Who knows. Then, very late at night, key counties in swing states all seem to stop counting ballots at the same time. The excuses start flowing "poll workers have to sleep too!"

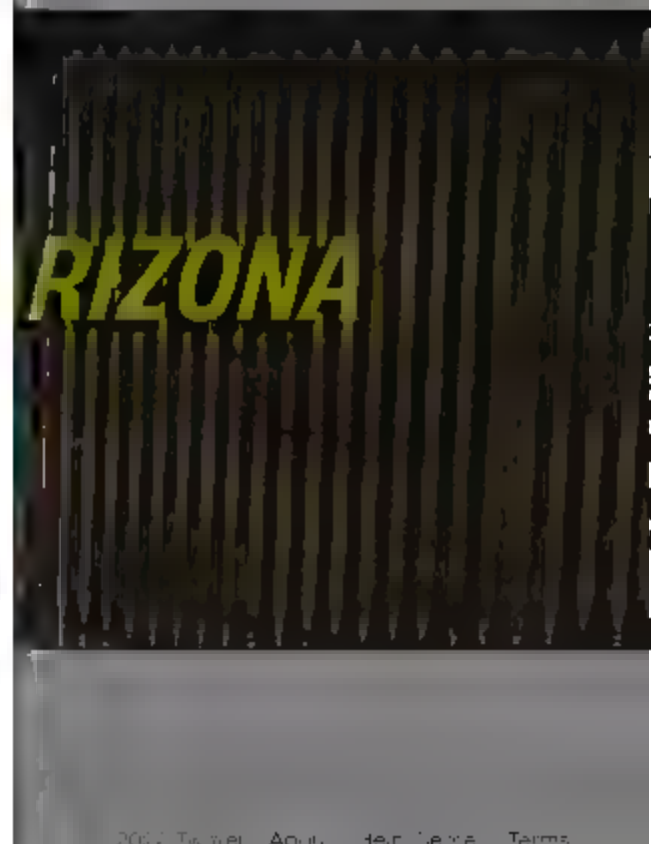
Blake Masters @bgmasters · 23 Sep 2021



Poll watchers must stay 50 feet away. Detroit counting center boards up windows. Paid operatives take to the streets, warning what will come if the results "go the wrong way." (Credible threats given the mob violence of summer 2020, which went unpunished b/c "social justice")

3 65 428

Blake Masters @bgmasters · 23 Sep 2021

Then, boom, the media calls it for Biden, and the gaslighting begins. Instead of acknowledging it was actually pretty crazy and chaotic, the mainstream narrative is simply: this was the most perfect election of all time. Any contrary view is a dangerous conspiracy theory.

It's a vibe check for me.
Masters is much easier to be around. There is an easiness to his demeanor and a calm to his process. His mind is racing yet the energy I feel is clarity.

He feels like a fighter that's already won.

Dear media: All law-abiding citizens 18+ already have the right to vote. Dems' radical election laws do not protect "voting rights" but sabotage them—making it easy for ineligible voters (eg noncitizens) to cancel out eligible ones. Stop calling their crazy bills "voting rights."

Q4 FUNDRAISING NUMBERS:
MASTERS RAISES A WHOPPING $1.38 MILLION

TUCSON, AZ — U.S. Senate candidate Blake Masters has raised $1.38 million in Q4 2021.

This fundraising haul builds upon Masters' initial $1.01M raised in Q3 2021, his first FEC filing quarter. Whereas many candidates often struggle in their second filing quarters (because friends and family donations are exhausted) and in Q4's (because donors are busy with the holidays), Masters has shown that he can raise serious money no matter what time of the year it is.

Masters' opponents in the Republican primary — who include the sitting attorney general (who President Trump calls "lackluster") and a businessman who has resorted to self-funding — have yet to release their Q4 numbers.

"My campaign is generating a lot of excitement. We are pulling in new supporters and new sources of funding," Masters said. "This is going to be one of the most expensive races in the country, and Republicans can't afford to put forward someone who refuses to do the work. I am outraising everyone else. I will continue to do so, and will have the resources to beat Mark Kelly in November."

The Arizona Republican primary will be held on August 2, 2022.

Q4 FUNDRAISING NUMBERS:
MASTERS RAISES A WHOPPING $1.38 MILLION

TUCSON, AZ – U.S. Senate candidate Blake Masters has raised $1.38 million in Q4 2021.

This fundraising haul builds upon Masters' initial $1.01M raised in Q3 2021, his first FEC filing quarter. Whereas many candidates often struggle in their second filing quarters (because friends and family donations are exhausted) and in Q4's (because donors are busy with the holidays), Masters has shown that he can raise serious money no matter what time of the year it is.

Masters' opponents in the Republican primary – who include the sitting attorney general (who President Trump calls "lackluster") and a businessman who has resorted to self-funding – have yet to release their Q4 numbers.

"My campaign is generating a lot of excitement. We are pulling in new supporters and new sources of funding," Masters said. "This is going to be one of the most expensive races in the country, and Republicans can't afford to put forward someone who refuses to do the work. I am outraising everyone else. I will continue to do so, and will have the resources to beat Mark Kelly in November."

The Arizona Republican primary will be held on August 2, 2022.

"My campaign is generating a lot of excitement. We are pulling in new supporters and new sources of funding," Masters said. "This is going to be one of the most expensive races in the country, and Republicans can't afford to put forward someone who refuses to do the work I am outraising everyone else. I will continue to do so, and I will have the resources to beat Mark Kelly in November."

The Arizona Republican primary will be held on August 2, 2022.

Q4 FUNDRAISING NUMBERS:
MASTERS RAISES A WHOPPING $1.38 MILLION

TUCSON, AZ – U.S. Senate candidate Blake Masters has raised $1.38 million in Q4 2021.

This fundraising haul builds upon Masters' initial $1.01M raised in Q3 2021, his first FEC filing quarter. Whereas many candidates often struggle in their second filing quarters (because friends and family donations are exhausted) and in Q4s (because donors are busy with the holidays), Masters has shown that he can raise serious money no matter what time of the year it is.

Masters' opponents in the Republican primary – who include the sitting attorney general (who President Trump calls "lackluster") and a businessman who has resorted to self-funding – have yet to release their Q4 numbers.

"My campaign is generating a lot of excitement. We are pulling in new supporters and new sources of funding," Masters said. "This is going to be one of the most expensive races in the country, and Republicans can't afford to put forward someone who refuses to do the work. I am outraising everyone else. I will continue to do so, and will have the resources to beat Mark Kelly in November."

The Arizona Republican primary will be held on August 2, 2022.

Q4 FUNDRAISING NUMBERS:
MASTERS RAISES A WHOPPING $1.38 MILLION

TUCSON, AZ — U.S. Senate candidate Blake Masters has raised $1.38 million in Q4 2021.

This fundraising haul builds upon Masters' initial $1.01M raised in Q3 2021, his first FEC filing quarter. Whereas many candidates often struggle in their second filing quarters (because friends and family donations are exhausted) and in Q4's (because donors are busy with the holidays), Masters has shown that he can raise serious money no matter what time of the year it is.

Masters' opponents in the Republican primary — who include the sitting attorney general (who President Trump calls "lackluster") and a businessman who has resorted to self-funding — have yet to release their Q4 numbers.

"My campaign is generating a lot of excitement. We are pulling in new supporters and new sources of funding," Masters said. "This is going to be one of the most expensive races in the country, and Republicans can't afford to put forward someone who refuses to do the work. I am outraising everyone else. I will continue to do so, and will have the resources to beat Mark Kelly in November."

The Arizona Republican primary will be held on August 2, 2022.

The left-wing nonprofit complex is so corrupt. It's obvious what is happening but Democrats would never dare go after them. That changes when we take back Congress.

Funny. I try and buy USA only.

It's probably not surprising that it is very difficult.

Even New Balance has 'some' made in US but others China.

You almost have to see the tangible shoe or verify with the company.

This needs to change.

Our landfills are filled with China

Mark Kelly is so dishonest. This isn't an "exception" for "voting rights."

Kelly wants to nuke the filibuster so the left can federalize elections, add new states (with D senators) to the Union, and pack the Supreme Court. That'd be the end of America as we know it.

CONGRESSMAN MADISON CAWTHORN ENDORSES BLAKE MASTERS FOR U.S. SENATE

TUCSON, AZ— Congressman Madison Cawthorn (R-NC) has endorsed Blake Masters in the Arizona 2022 U.S. Senate race. Cawthorn is the youngest member of Congress, and when elected, Blake Masters will be the youngest Republican U.S. Senator.

Congressman Cawthorn put out the following statement:

"Blake Masters is the America First warrior we need in Washington. He will not back down from defending our southern border, fighting for election integrity, and championing President Trump's MAGA agenda in the United States Senate. The days of America Last politicians are over, Arizonans are ready for true leadership representing their interests in Washington. I'm proud to endorse Blake Masters for Senate. Send him to Washington so we can both fight the rad cal left and restore American greatness."

Blake Masters responded:

"Congressman Cawthorn is a rising star in the Republican Party, and will be a nightmare for the progressive left for many many years to come. He's inspiring an entire generation of young Americans to get involved, and he does that with humor and honesty, not by not apologizing for his conservative views. I'm honored to have received his endorsement."

America's most powerful institutions conspired to manipulate the 2020 election. Donald Trump should be president today.

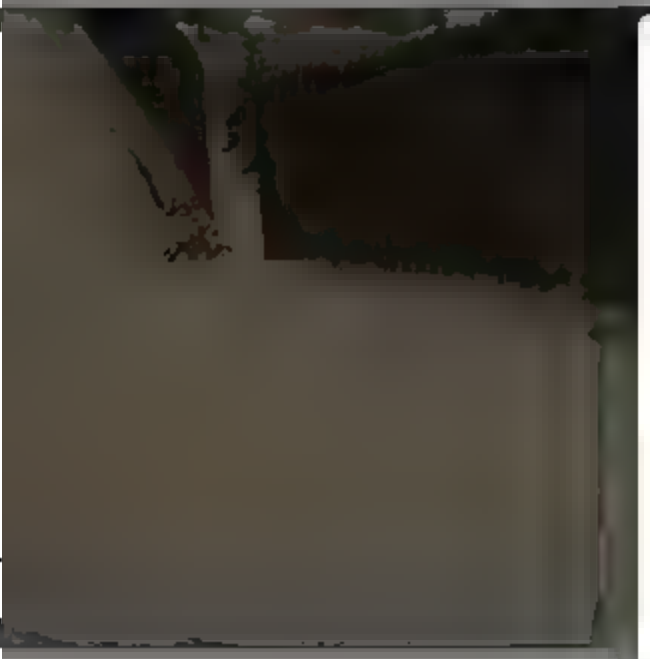
CONGRESSMAN MADISON CAWTHORN ENDORSES BLAKE MASTERS FOR U.S. SENATE

TUCSON, AZ— Congressman Madison Cawthorn (R-NC) has endorsed Blake Masters in the Arizona 2022 U.S. Senate race. Cawthorn is the youngest member of Congress, and when elected, Blake Masters will be the youngest Republican U.S. Senator.

Congressman Cawthorn put out the following statement:

"Blake Masters is the America First warrior we need in Washington. He will not back down from defending our southern border, fighting for election integrity, and championing President Trump's MAGA agenda in the United States Senate. The days of America Last politicians are over, Arizonans are ready for true leadership representing their interests in Washington. I'm proud to endorse Blake Masters for Senate. Send him to Washington so we can both fight the rad cal left and restore American greatness."



Blake Masters responded:

"Congressman Cawthorn is a rising star in the Republican Party, and will be a nightmare for the progressive left for many many years to come. He's inspiring an entire generation of young Americans to get involved, and he does that with humor and honesty, not by not apologizing for his conservative views. I'm honored to have received his endorsement."
